

Are you an ex-mineworker or the family member of an ex-mineworker?

The Coal Industry Social Welfare Organisation

CISWO is a UK-wide charity (No. 1015581) which provides a range of free and confidential services to former mineworkers and their families including advice and practical assistance at times of personal difficulty or financial hardship.

Court Royal

'A well deserved break for South Wales Miners'

Court Royal is situated in a prime position on the Bournemouth Seafront and offers unparalleled views of the pier and coast.

It operates today as a registered charity (No 206608) providing the opportunity of a holiday to former mineworkers and their wives or widows at 'not for profit' rates.

To find out more about CISWO and Court Royal, please telephone us on 01443 485233

or visit www.MinersWelfare.org